

3.3.13

Suffering | Mark 5:21-43

- I. God is never too _____ for you (5:21-24)
- II. You are never too _____ or _____ to him (5:24b-34)
- III. Nothing is too _____ for God to handle (5:35-43).

Discussion Questions:

1. If you were Jairus, what would you be thinking while Jesus stopped and talked with the woman? How do you think you'd feel upon learning of her dying?
2. When have you felt that desperate? How did the situation turn out?
3. Why do you think Jairus and the woman sought help from Jesus especially given all they had already tried? How does that apply to us today?
4. What is the difference between trusting God to heal and waiting on his unpredictable timing?
5. Who do you know that has endured suffering well? Why is their example noteworthy?
6. Who in your life is suffering? What can you do that would be helpful and meaningful to them?